

TITAKISTAN COLLECTION

M'TITA BAMAKO

When nomadism is the norm of our life, when people, ideas and goods flow back and forth, traveling east to west and south to north, we nourish within us the finest aspects of diverse identities, enriching our willingness to share and learn.

This exclusive collection is inspired by my latest travels, from the glorious Swahili coastal trading towns of East Africa, to the greatest Silk Road cities in Central Asia.

TIMUR BAG

The amazon girl excelled in horsemanship, sword fighting and archery, as well as raiding caravans and rustling horses.

Young boys were attracted by her beauty,
but did not dare to seduce her.
Suddenly...

SAC MARKANDA

Fancyworks decorate the bride's house for the first rendezvous with the fiancé.
Then they follow the bride's way.
Mothers and sisters help, embroidering magical symbols to protect the newlyweds.
The wedding ritual is in place.

PERSIAN TRIO

"Zabon Doni Jahon Doni" - Know Language, Know The World.

Tajik proverb

ULUG BEG BAGS

Reach for the stars, like a glamorous astronomer.
Look up in the sky, with closed eyes.
To design your own celestial universe.

WONDERS BAG

In front of the house once stood a lighthouse.
Inside the house, there was a terrestrial globe.
For days and nights she traveled alone, reaching the limits of her poles.

Luckily, there are certain lights that never turn off.

SUZANI HAT

Put flowers, leaves and fruits ornaments in your head.
Empty your bag.
A magical talisman for happiness, joy and lucky life.

DHOW TROTTERS

The Dhow is packed with ivory, gold, spices and silks.
A treasure gently sailing across unexplored seas.
Deep blue waters and coral reefs.

Like your immense eyes.
